THE PHILIPPINE PUBLIC SCHOOLS AT THE PANAMA-PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Philippine Public Schools at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition The exhibit consists of wall charts, class written work, publications, references, statistics, compilations, administration features, text-books, models, designs, plans, research work, school library work, school museum work, scientific and technical displays, graded industrial courses, transparencies, photographs, lantern slides, moving pictures, an industrial working exhibit, a force of demonstrators, and a sales department of school-made industrial articles. Through these, it is the purpose to show the complete public school system as it is now organized from grade one, the lowest work of the primary course, through the high school classes; first of all, the idea of centralized school management; campaigns for standard school buildings and sites; office management; the public welfare movement; school finances; literacy progress; training in public health and citizenship; special campaigns to improve standards of living; the special training for girls; classroom methods; academic progress; standardization of school text-books and courses of study; the industrial program; the play movement and school athletics; gardening and agriculture; economic research work; design and dye work; and, in an industrial way, the great campaign to make use of the local wealth of raw materials in the household industries, the improvement in standards of workmanship, and the employment of typical weaves and designs of Malayan origin. Stated most briefly, the exhibit presents the complete public school system of the Philippine Islands, with balanced curriculum embracing academic instruction, industrial training and vocational guidance, athletics and play; organization and administration. From its very nature, the industrial branch is capable of fuller representation in an exposition than any other; and it is precisely upon industrial and commercial features that emphasis is placed...
