Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Miscellanea In a medley of topics such as comprise this book, the author may begin and end with any such as may suit his fancy. The locality which has been the scene of one s birth and childhood days is the one to which we are likely to be most attached. This attachment is so strong in my mind, that it has induced me to put this topic first in this medley of topics. Near the route of the above mentioned railroad is the place of my birth and childhood days. A line known as the Columbia and Port Deposit railroad was made thirty-five to forty years ago, and which was itself at the time a great undertaking, is over the same route as that part of the above road from Creswell to Shenk s Ferry, in Lancaster County, Pa., of which I am about to write. For this distance of about eight miles the making of the low-grade road, buried under many feet of shattered rock and dirt the bed of the Columbia and...
