Hyperion, 1999. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: Finally, a film guide that presents nothing but the best, the classics of Hollywood. From the people at American Movie Classics, the premier classic movie television network, comes a companion that provides a new way of discovering the movies with a collection of over 4,500 films made between 1929 and 1979 and a treasury of other features. In addition to the individual film entries containing credits, ratings, running times, and synopses, the book includes film preservation updates; filmographies of stars and directors; lists of Oscar winners; film picks from stars, directors, and writers; information about related museums, magazines, and websites; and all of it illustrated with over 100 photos. For fans looking for a truly classic movie experience -- without wading through lists of the latest action-movie sequels -- this companion will become an indispensable reference, and a source of endless entertainment.
