By H Gyde Lund

Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Primer on Evaluation and Use of Natural Resource Information for Corporate Data Bases Much information exists about natural resources in the form of reports, maps, overlays, imagery, personal knowledge, and data bases. It is usually more economical to use existing information, to the extent practical, than to collect new data, but, in some cases, new data are needed. Evaluation of existing information is important either when designing a GIS or corporate database or when a new information requirement is being defined that will use an existing GIS or corporate database.
