Excerpt from Report of Hearing Before the Committee on Cities, March 8, 1907 on the Bill, Senate 189: To Preserve the Old State House as an Historic and Patriotic Memorial, and to Prohibit Its Use for Any Other Purpose More than twenty years ago it was my privilege to be associated in the Legislature with a man whose ancestors fought to establish this nation, and who has fought to preserve and perpetuate it. I have great pleasure in presenting to you General Hazard Stevens. Remarks Of General Stevens. Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen: Any one conversant with the history of Massachusetts must be astonished on entering this hall, and beholding this large assemblage of the patriotic societies and people of the Commonwealth met to protest against further desecration of the old State House, and to appeal for the protection of law against encroachments of sordid commercialism, - astonished that any person, or corporation, or commission would desire or would dare to assail this venerable building, - astonished that it should be necessary for the people thus to rise up in its defence. As the...
