Excerpt from The Railway Question: Government Ownership and Operation; Mr. Borden s Policy Considered Oi course, where the circumstances are out of the common. The two sets of roads may and do nourish side by side. They get along well together in France and India simply because in those countries the State allots territory to and guarantees dividends on the Company lines. Similarly, we in Canada possess State lines in the Intercolonial and Prince Edward Island roads. Along with a number of Company lines: but in this case the State lines are stowed away in a corner, which they virtually have all to themselves. And do not compete seriously with the great Company lines west. The Canadian Pacific competes successfully with the Intercolonial between Montreal and St. John.
