

Ancestral Debt

By Steph Stroud

America Star Books. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 232 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.5in. When Zane and her mother Constance arrive to the infamous haunted city of New Orleans for an all Hallows Eve vacation, they soon realize their timing couldnt have been any worse. Only hours into their visit they received the first warning from a local blues singer begging them to stay together that the dark one is coming. Just so happens it was the first time in forty-six years that samhain fell in the phase of the full moon giving the vampire Drew all rights to his long awaited redemption to cease the last two of the wicked bloodline. After a strange and exhausting night Zane awakes to a being outside her balcony door. She learns from Jonas, a vampire watcher, what she really is and the power she possess. Jonas takes Zane world weaving between the spirit plains to learn the truth of her family history and untimely deaths of loved ones taken by the will of Drews hand. In disbelief the only defense Jonas can give her against Drew is a protection seal painfully branded into her own flesh. Ignoring the warnings as if...
