

Devotionals: Is God Still Speaking? (Paperback)

By Zack Ford

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Devotionals are an integral part of many Christians daily lives. This can be a good or bad thing, depending on the devotional and what it is teaching you about God and His Word. One important question that we believe must be asked in relation to the devotionals we choose is: What does this author/devotional believe and say about the Word of God? The answer to this question is of the utmost importance. In this book, you will be provided with concise and practical answers to some of the most important questions when you consider choosing a devotional to help you in your spiritual life. In this short book, the Pastors and Elders of Grace Bible Church have sought to provide the reader with a concise guide to understanding how God speaks to us today, and what bearing that has on our devotional lives as Christians. Christians should take care that even their private devotions never deviate from sound theology and the authority of Scripture. This new resource is both a theologically compelling and pastorally sensible application of Scripture s authority and sufficiency...
