

Ifs, Buts Going Nuts

By Sonitha J Kapoor

Vitasta Publishing Pvt. Ltd., New Delhi, 2013. Soft cover. Book Condition: New. So, you hate oily food and Mom served parathas for breakfast. how could she! You just adore that little naval-piercing that your friend has but your parents would get a heart attack if you want that, right? Also, that cute guy you saw at the school-fest . . . does he really like you? Too many questions plague your mind which the world never understands, how would they? They're adults after all. So meet your new friend? Natasha. Studying in the tenth standard, living in a city with her mom and dad, her life is a royal mess that she is trying to sort out. What's the meaning of friendship? Can parents ever be friends? Do friendships stand the test of time? Natasha is trying her best to understand life that is offering a new challenge everyday. What kind of challenge? Well, she does not fall off a cliff and she does not meet a monster either? she just goes to school! But that's adventure enough. You would know. It's your story.
