

Down the Road Less Traveled: Alcoholism to Shangri-La (Paperback)

By Dr Gerald M Knowles Ed D

Gerald Knowles, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Thrust into the great American Southwest life faced me with a road fraught between the challenges created by emergent social expectations on the one hand and the successive phases of my personal development on the other hand. My path was marked with breathtaking natural wonders, astonishing friends and inspiring experience and rich opportunity. The cumulative deficits of failures to obtain necessary shares of such virtues at each successive stage made it tough to adequately perform at common standards of success. Alcohol became the substitute to provide escape and a sense of feel good. At the brink of my dark abyss of self-destruction and despair groups of sober allies lifted me up. From whence unknown my tiny being alighted aside Cleopatra Hill in the United Verde Hospital amid the raucous and roaring copper mining souls of Jerome, Arizona. Doting females infused deep trust and hope that was essential later to sail through dark clouds of anger and abuse. Independence, wealth, romance and determination were discovered in Albuquerque. Fidelity and competence were captured on the football fields of the Winslow Bulldogs. Leadership and sportsmanship were...
