Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Report of Commissioners on Proposed Draft of New City Charter for City of Portland, Maine The undersigned, who were appointed by vote of the City Council, Commissioners to prepare a draft of a new Charter, respectfully report the accompanying draft, with the following explanations: - It has been the purpose of the Commissioners to make no changes in the present Charter, except in matters where the Commissioners were unanimously of the opinion that better results could be secured by the changes proposed. The most important changes are the following: - 1. A single board of fourteen Aldermen is established, instead of two boards as at present. This change is recommended by the Commissioners, because it assimilates the management of a municipal corporation to that of a business corporation, and is believed to be in accord with the best thought and practice in this matter. The adoption of two boards is an imitation of our national and state form of government, which in its legislative branch consists of two bodies, with an important distinction omitted in our present Charter, which is, that the two bodies shall be elected by different constituencies. Our present boards are elected by the same constituency, and form no real check upon each other. Upon important matters, the members of both boards meet together, and might as well, so far as all practical results are concerned, vote together. In addition to the above, the fact that the Board of Aldermen are the municipal officers of the city, and by a recent law are vested with the direction and control of all subordinate city officers, necessarily makes the Common Council an unimportant adjunct...
