Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 1942. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Nope, Dawson said. Nothing that you don t know about. It s the set-up we re in now. Five weeks ago we volunteered to take the Commando training course. Colonel Welsh, Chief of all U. S. Intelligence, thought it would be a good idea if we took it. So we did. So we completed training yesterday. So we came down here to New York on leave until orders should arrive. But we had to say where we d be stopping. Okay. So far, so good. But how long do we stay here? What happens next? What orders are we going to receive? And when? And how will they come to us? See what I mean? It s all hanging in the air. Nothing definite. Heck! We might be at a movie when a phone call came through from Colonel Welsh or somebody, and we wouldn t be here. I mean, it strikes me that we should have been told to report to somebody every day to see if our orders were ready. But-
