

En Aztlan (Paperback)

By John Valdez, Ricardo Mendoza, Sherrie Gonzales-Kobl

Wpr Publishing, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Dreams, hopes, and struggles flower in the barrio and el Corazon de Aztlan to create moments of hope, love, and joy, as well as times of sacrifice, disappointment and pain. Hear their voices. See their images of tenderness, which reveal love, power, light, mystery, and sorrow. A new generation emerges among us, seeking the sun and sky in search of oneness. With great pride we will listen and observe the voices and images. We will honor the artists and writers who find a way to create and communicate their souls through their art. Youthful, energetic, and vibrant, they sing the song of the lives we live. Provocative, sensitive, soulful, lively, humorous, these works are our internal survival kits that sustain us in a world where we were once ashamed to proclaim our Mexicanness, in a dominant American culture where those on the outside were invisible. These works proclaim a positive link to our cultural heritage, positively and lovingly. The writers wrote to express their voices-living in a world that is both American and Mexican. These creative expressions are part of their...
