Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from An Oration Delivered on the Centennial Anniversary of the Initiation of General George Washington, Among the Ancient and Honorable Fraternity of Freemasons, Before the Grand Lodge of Rhode Island, in Newport, November 4, 1852 If there is wisdom in holding up before the people the virtues of great and noble men, who have laid their country, and their fellow men under obligations, by the deeds that they have done, and the examples they have left for emulation; much more wisdom is there in adding to the history which chronicles their greatness and patriotism, and pointing out the steps, by which they mounted to such eminence. It is not our intention to detain you, while we seek to illustrate the character and virtues, or tell you of the deeds of our immortal Washington. We might as well seek to illustrate the glory of the noon-day sun. Every school boy, among the first lessons of his progress in reading learns the history of the achievements of that illustrious man, and the high and glorious station, which he attained. And filled....
