

Casting the Bones: An Author s Guide to the Craft of Fiction (Paperback)

By Robert Gregory Browne

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Casting the Bones is witty and written in a language that writers with no experience and seasoned veterans can relate to. I felt as if we were sitting in a bistro, enjoying a cup of tea, as Browne shared his writing and publishing journey, while doling out well thought out, valuable, and tangible nuggets of writing advice. Selena Robins, Author of What a Girl Wants With a career as a professional writer that spans nearly thirty years, bestselling, award-winning novelist and former screenwriter, Robert Gregory Browne, has a wealth of hard-earned knowledge about writing fiction. Now he shares his often unique insights into how writers-from beginners to veterans, both traditional and self-published-can improve and hone their craft. Pulling no punches, and making no false promises, Browne covers the core essentials of fiction with chapters on character, structure, sub-plot, conflict, goals, motivation, and dialogue, that will help you transform your stories into page turners that readers will want to devour. Some of the topics included are: Practicing Your Magic Creating Characters that Jump Off the Page Seducing Your Readers Finding Your Voice...
