A sudden bang gives Isla the fright of her life as her tire explodes. Struggling to control her car she is left shocked and dazed at the side of the road. Fortunately she has attracted the attention of a well meaning passerby. The stranger fixes her tire but finds himself drawn to her. Despite her initial reluctance he insists they meet again. A coffee quickly escalates into a second date and a night of passion which Isla will not forget in a hurry. The relationship quickly picks up pace, their daily encounters occupy her every thought, until she realizes that she has never been to his house. In fact, she soon learns that he is quick to change the subject when she tries to bring it up. Frustrated, her mind goes into overdrive as she tries to work out why she is not allowed to see his home. Jake obviously has something to hide. When attempting to confront him fails she is left wondering whether to walk away, even though she knows it will break her heart. But what option does she have left? Jake knows the secret is annoying her, but he has been burned too many times before, he has to be sure before he lets her know the truth about him. The only question is whether she will stay around long enough for him to be certain. Ready for an adventure? Secure Your Copy Today!.
