You come home, unwind, relax, and spend a little time on a pet project. Then someone takes notice. You receive threatening emails. Strangers are following you on the train. Your home isn't safe anymore. You have no one to turn to. Alone. Scared. Paranoid. You don't have time to think. You have to act now. Run. Hide. Fight. Survive. Those are your only options. Joe's dreams were always just out of his reach. Cursed to a life of corporate drudgery, he prayed for any escape. It turned out, someone up there was listening, but it wasn't who Joe expected. He must now face an adversary even more sinister and cutthroat than middle management.
