American Background Estimated population 150,000. Principal centers: New York City, Chicago and the Pacific Coast. Churches: Buddhist and Taoist temples, Congregational, Disciples, Methodist Episcopal, Presbyterian, Protestant Episcopal, Baptist. Japanese immigration to the United States did not begin as early as did that from China. During the past few years, in which they have come in larger numbers, their presence has aroused a widespread antagonism, especially in California, The Japanese are engaged in agriculture and fruit growing, fishing and commercial enterprises. They operate banks and shipping and trading companies and control considerable capital. Concerning the menace involved in their presence here, very decided difference of opinion exists. The recent voting in California registered a nearly equal division of opinion and the antiJapanese agitation was organized financially...
