Christianity is a call that goes with grace and mercy. You are a not a true Christian until you run the race to the end. The Christian life is described in a number of places as a race, but, unlike our human sporting races, we are not competing with others for a prize. It is an individual race which we all must strive to win. Listen to the way Paul describes it in 2 Tim.4.7-8 I have fought a good fight. I have finished the work I was to do. I have kept the faith. 8 There is a crown which comes from being right with God. The Lord, the one who will judge, will give it to me on that great day when He comes again. I will not be the only one to receive a crown. All those who love to think of His coming and are looking for Him will receive one also. Notice what Paul is saying. I have fought the good fight. The Good News has I have done my best in the race. There is effort in the Christian life. We depend on what God has done for us in Christ our Savior. The Christian race begins when we receive Jesus as our Savior. It continues as we daily put our trust in him and step out to be his person and to do his will. We live day by day on the basis of his amazing grace. The Christian life is enabled and empowered by the indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit. But the Spirit doesn t do it for us - we are...
