The Universe is a dynamic energy system which is in a constant state of change. Everything your eye can see is made up of energy particles which are under your co-control. We now have scientific evidence that proves that you are at cause, or co-cause, for everything you observe. All you need to do is choose what you desire to manifest, choose it with certainty and consistency, and this simple act will set into motion the process of change in as little as 60 seconds, depending on your clarity, focus, and certainty. Life, in other words, will meets you at your point of expectations. This book is a compilation of some of the greatest self-help concepts ever devised. This work did not source from its author. An innumerable list of amazing people have been my teachers. Your Happiness is its ultimate goal. Through the pages of this book, you will learn how to control your thoughts using time-tested principles so powerful that your life will instantly become a magnet for attracting the life you have always desired. If your goal is happiness,...
