By Lori Alden Holuta

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Bob Brown (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Constance is a wild, stubborn young girl growing up poor in a small industrial town. But beneath her thread-worn exterior beats the heart of a dreamer and a wordsmith. She feeds her hunger for reading by picking the lock on the local bookstore late at night to enjoy her own private reading room. But at age twelve, she s orphaned. With no relatives to take her in, the local authorities scheme to take charge of the bewildered girl s life. Running away to join the circus-like kids do in adventure books-seems like such a brilliant idea. or is it? That was six long years ago. Now, Constance is eighteen, fed up with the constraints of life under the big-top, and despairing for her future. She s ready to dust off her old dreams, but first she s going to need another cunning escape plan. Can a young, newly-freed woman travel the road to her dreams and a place to call home? Step back in time to 1895 and take a wild, occasionally hilarious ride with Constance and...

Reviews

An exceptional pdf and the typeface utilized was fascinating to read through. It can be written in straightforward words and phrases instead of confusing. I am just quickly could possibly get a delight of looking at a written ebook.
