Change Leadership: A U.S. Metal Building Industry Perspective (Paperback)

By Dr George W Rideout

Evolution Strategists Press, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The purpose of this descriptive qualitative research study was to identify change management strategies and techniques used by leaders in the U.S. metal building industry. The research used the Delphi technique to gather data from a panel of senior industry leaders. This study potentially represents the first such study ever to be conducted about the U.S. metal building industry. Because of this, the study provides significant opportunity for learning and growth based not only on present interpretation of the data but also on future interpretation of the data. The study represents a benchmark for existing and future leaders in the U.S. metal building industry to gauge their change knowledge and policies. The data support a model containing specific suggestions for leaders: (a) identify change forces that exist in the environment; (b) establish the capabilities to distinguish between internal and external change forces; (c) develop strategies to manage the change forces; and (d) use the change forces to create a sustainable competitive advantage. The study provides a long-term framework that leaders in any industry may use to establish, enhance, or guide their...

Reviews

Extensive information for book fans. It is written in basic words and never hard to understand. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

-- Otis Wisoky

This publication is great. It is full of wisdom and knowledge. You will not really feel monotony at any time of the time (that's what catalogs are for relating to when you ask me).
