By Marsell Morris

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Walking Mary, an old, experienced, prostitute, made 12th street her stroll. She, with her close friend, Denise, plied their trade together, as well as enjoyed a consciousness robbing, heroin high, together, while nodding in Sam s 12th street dope house. Had she known that her death at the hands of a crooked cop, Officer Spells, would be the spark that ignited the 1967 12th street riot, and cause the death of her dear friend, Denise, she would have given up her feigning and tricking and put herself into treatment. Greg, and Jordan, two close friends, who visited 12th and used Mary and Denise s special talents, as well as two ex-cons and looters, Robert and Ray, are just a few individuals who s lives will be touched by the civil unrest. As you read this work, keep in mind that some of the sorted details of events depicted here in are true as they happened. Several events are depicted as were experienced by the central characters of the story. Many other graphic events and places, are no more than fictitious fabrications cooked up...
