OPAL (HARDBACK)

Dog Ear Publishing, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Opal Pratt shuns confrontation like a yard dog shuns a skunk. You'll see her in 1950s rural Mississippi as a plain, reclusive spinster. She's not afraid of people. She just avoids them. Yet, when push comes to the inevitable shove, she comes through - though perhaps reluctantly - for those she loves. In this collection, you'll also meet the stripper, the pregnant teenager, the immigrant Baptist preacher, Opal's only suitor, the county sheriff and his nearly out-of-control deputy, the blind shopkeeper, and Opal's young friend, Billy. Step into Opal's world where you will both cry for her and cheer her. A Pushcart Prize nominee, Thomas-Plunk was also recognized by NPR when her entry was designated a favorite in their Three-Minute Fiction contest. Her story, Cassie's Chair, was recently a finalist in the Nivalis 2016 short fiction competition. Another of her stories, previously published online by Steel Toe Review, was selected for the journal's annual print edition. More than a dozen of Thomas-Plunk's short stories and poetry have appeared in Deep South Magazine, Belle Reve Literary Journal, The Dead Mule School of Southern Literature, Steel Toe Review and China Grove Magazine. Thomas-Punk was born and raised in Memphis, Tennessee, the cultural, commercial and social head of the Mississippi Delta. She and her husband now reside in north Mississippi.
