Life in today s world is increasingly difficult for Christians. Surrounded by temptation, increasing immorality, and evil, it s easy to lose one s way. Marriage, piety, and belief are under attack by secular forces uninterested in God s plan-or directly opposing it. Only an authentic relationship with God can steer Christians safely through the modern world. In A Word for These Times, Sharice D. Gilbert reveals how to establish such a relationship while honoring and adhering to God s plan. Gilbert breaks down the driving forces and issues facing Christians, including the importance of marriage and the steps needed before marriage. She explains how the Ten Commandments apply to modern life-and how the enemy seeks to discredit Christian morals, standards, and behavior. In addition, Gilbert discusses the ongoing spiritual war being waged and how Christians must act to overcome not only the enemy lurking outside but also the enemy within, whose voice constantly tempts us to wander off of God s path and into immorality and sin. A Word for These Times reminds readers that, even at our most difficult moments, God s plan has our best interests at heart, and as loving children, it is our duty and privilege to honor his will.
