Excerpt: .Statutes at Large of Pm, IX, 11-12, 18-19; Lowe O! Pc., II, 144-147: Scharf and Westcott. Hint. of Phila., I, 316, 322, 828. claring that every person who was so devoid of honor, virtue, and love of his country as to refuse his assistance at this time of eminent public danger might be suspected of designs inimical to the freedom of America, and that where such designs were very apparent from the conduct of individuals, they ought to be confined during the absence of the militia. The officers of the State W re directed to act accordingly, reserving appeals to the Council. It was the enforcement of this resolution that caused what James Allen called in his Diary a persecution of the Tories, when--to use his own words-- houses were broken open, people imprisoned without any color of authority by private persons, and as was said a list of 200 disaffected persons was made out, who were to be seized, and imprisoned and sent off to North Carolina? In this list the Allens were reported to be included. Under such an apprehension, Andrew and William joined their brother John at Union Iron Works, and the three brothers were not long in deciding to claim the protection of Howe s army at Trenton. Thence, the proceeded to New York City, leaving their families behind them Many more influytial citizens are said to have gone over to the enemy at this time. One of these was...
