C., Before the Winnipeg Real Estate Exchange, at Eaton s Dining Room, Winnipeg, May 5th 1915, at Noon, on Jitneys Even with reference to li t and wer the com pany can show that it is ing su jected to very unfair competition. The city naturally has many advantages over the company in the way of bringingpressure to bear upon citizens to take light and power; not only that, but it is assuming to sell it at cost, and the Street Railway capital was not in vested with a view of supplying any commodity urely at cost. Another handicap the company abors under is it has to pay very heavy taxes in respect of its light and power business, as well as other departments.
