STARTUP PRO: BOOTSTRAPPING IDEAS FOR STARTUP ENTREPRENEURS (PAPERBACK)

Anomar Publishing, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A new book by a former staffing firm owner providing tools designed to help people free themselves from dead-end jobs and start successful businesses. Start Up Pro: Bootstrapping Ideas for Startup Entrepreneurs by Ramona Clay (Anomar Publishing, 2016) provides invaluable success secrets and fresh, simple steps anyone can take to get unstuck from a place of insecurity, finding the drive to take action, increase their income and transform their lives. The book includes new, creative ideas for startup businesses, information about how to start a business with little or no money, marketing tips to drive a business and generate income fast, effective business planning and financial management advice and much more. While Startup Pro serves as a useful resource for anyone wanting to start their own businesses, it is especially designed to empower women and those with limited resources. My goal is to guide others to the decision of which path to take on the road to self-employment, Clay said. I find that most folks already know what they want deep down inside. My book and my coaching are designed to bring out those entrepreneurial desires and help people connect with their God-given purpose to create fulfilling and rewarding lives. Startup Pro also includes business resources, including access to capital for qualified startup businesses. Clay is offering workshops, coaching, and speaking engagements to help others create inspiring alternatives to monotonous work. Please send an email for additional information: About Ramona Clay Ramona Clay is an entrepreneur with more than 20 years of experience in recruiting and coaching. She is also an inspirational author with an emphasis on Christian values. Clay started most of her small businesses, including her successful recruiting business Global...
