Brand New Book  Print on Demand .As Jesus walked to the cross, I imagined him seeing visions of life without mercy, grace, and forgiveness through the eyes of four individuals. The stories are fictitious, but represent a cross section of our lives. The characters include a prostitute on drugs desperately wanting more for her life, a young man that commits murder to find love and acceptance, a little girl trying to escape a home of domestic violence and alcoholism, and a minister that has turned his heart away from God. Through this narrative, I hope to share with you God s unconditional love, for we have all fallen short of God s destiny for our lives. We were created in his image and he welcomes us back into his fold without question. He forgives our sins and restores our lives and along our walk, he has given us a testimony. His message to us is to feed his sheep with the word.
