Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Alabama Technical Institute and College for Women Bulletin, Vol. 14: Summer School Sixth Year, May 31 to July 13, 1921 d. All graduates of accredited high schools who desire to secure certificates to teach in the public schools will be required to complete satisfactorily credit courses in approved institutions for periods of twelve weeks each at regular or summer sessions in order to secure second-class pre-normal certificates valid for one year. 2. a. Every expired or expiring certificate issued either on examination or on graduation from a college or a normal school may be renewed for a period of one year upon the satisfactory completion by the holder of a course of study for six weeks at a summer session of an approved institution. b. The satisfactory completion of a summer school course at an approved institution for a period of six weeks or of a similar course for twelve weeks in the summer or in the regular session will meet part of the requirements for the continued validity of a regular certificate issued subsequent to October 1, 1920. (See Bulletin No. 32 for conditions to be met for continued validity.) It is the desire of the Department of Education that all persons who may attend summer sessions shall be encouraged to choose a major portion of their work in the regular credit courses of the institutions with a view to accumulation of credits toward graduation and the securing of certificates of higher rank. The courses offered in the summer school may be grouped under three heads: 1. College. 2. High school. 3. Review courses for state examinations. The courses that carry high school or college credit may be...
