

Comes a Time: No Longer Capable of Dividing But Still Alive and Metabolically Active (Paperback)

By John Thomas Dodds

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Comes a Time is a collection of poems and essays exploring the ageing process (senescence), and the attributes (essence) that make us who we fundamentally are. Digging deep at times into the soul of the substance of growing old, the reader is never too far from finding humor where time becomes a diminishing number of cells doubling. Dedicated to all the sexagenarians, septuagenarians, octogenarians, and nonagenarians, who are no longer capable of dividing but are still alive and metabolically active.
