As she was sitting on the bench, sipping her tea, and pondering the power and love of God in her life, Sarah began to be aware of something that was happening. At first, it was a stirring, like the animals coming to attention with the feel of an impending earthquake. An effervescent light bathed the trees, grass, and even the river that meandered between the park and the nearby bluff in a brightness she had never seen; it startled her. It captured her attention, her study dismissed from her mind, as she stood up in awe. Almost simultaneously, she heard the loudest trumpet and most beautiful call sounding throughout the Earth, to all believers in Christ. In Resurrection Hope, author Freda Emmons explores the hope that lies deep in every believer's soul, namely, what is the culmination of this hope we cling to? What will life with our Creator and Savior be like? What will relationships in Heaven be like, with angels, fellow believers, and with God? In Resurrection Hope, an insightful and artfully woven tale, Emmons opens wide the door of tangible exploration of our eternal destiny. There is a reason for the hope that lies within us; Resurrection Hope activates inspiration, excitement, and great joy about eternal life.
