Phoenix Business Publishing, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . After all, he and his family were decimated when he and his wife found themselves charged with a white-collar crime and forced to accept plea agreements for crimes they did not commit. Of course, Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan could have declared their innocence and demanded a trial. But had they lost the trial, they each would have faced twenty years in federal prison. Who in their right mind would take such a risk, especially when you discover that federal prosecutors enjoy an average 92 conviction rate-and have now for the past two decades? Think this couldn t happen to you? Well, if you wear a white collar, think again. If you re an executive, a politician, or a business owner being questioned, audited, or investigated by any state or federal agency, chances are, like the Sullivan s and the Levine s, you re on your way. Do you realize that simple things you routinely do in your office or business can be a...
