Excerpt from The Unpublished Letters and Correspondence of Mrs. Isabella Graham: From the Year 1767 to 1814; Exhibiting Her Religious Character in the Different Relations of Life I AM certain, long before this can reach you, something from us has been expected, especially as Bell was shattered, before She left Greenock, that letters might be sent while at sea, and, for the most part, kept one ready; but hoisting out the boat and raising a Splutter, unless the captain be very different from what they generally are, is not so easy: in short, we could not accomplish it, which gave poor Bell much concern on her mother s account. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at This book is a reproduction of an important historical work.
