With Every Second That I Can I hold her face within my hands In the darkness of night and tell Her that I love her like no other. I look into her eyes to see a Youth riddled by my heart and Watch a love tinted in sorrow And a strength I ve never seen before. The silence that falls on my words, I understand all too clearly with My mind, but my heart just doesn t Want to let go. For she is beauty and perfection To me, and one day I ll...
