Excerpt: . . . 11 I want to thank you for giving me the opportunity to take a little bit more time than ordinary to summarize things, but I would be happy to answer any questions that you, Mr. Chairman, or any members of the subcommittee might have. The statement of Mr. Bonner follows: REPAED TATEMENT OF HE ONORABLE OBERT ONNER P S T H R C. B Chairman Camp, Ranking Member Sanchez, Members of the Subcommittee, thank you for this opportunity to testify. I am pleased to appear before you today to discuss U. S. Bureau of Customs and Border Protection, our efforts to achieve one face at the border, and our work in improving border security since September 11, 2001. Although over two years have passed since 9 - 11, that day remains as vivid in all of our memories today as it was two years ago. We still grieve for the 3, 000 innocent people whose lives were cut short on that day and for their families and loved ones. The horror and the anger that we all felt as a result of the terrorist attacks on 9 - 11 have not changed in the two years that have passed. But today I will tell you about some of the things that have changed. DHS The creation of the Department of Homeland Security is one very important step - perhaps the most important step here at home - that President Bush and our nation have taken to address the ongoing threat of international terrorism, a threat that is likely to be with us for...
