Excerpt from A Review of the Commerce, Manufactures, and the Public Private Improvements of Galesburg: Containing a Brief History of Knox College, and Sketches of the First Settlement of the Town Dear Reader, my object in writing this History is to set forth the advantages, privileges and prospects of Galesburg. I have endeavored to give a faithful daguerreotype of the business of the town, and to group within these pages facts at once interesting and useful. It may be that much has been omitted that should have appeared, and much admitted that were better out; and, if so, this must he my excuse; since I concluded to undertake this work I have been compelled to make a perilous journey by flood and land in search of a Press on which to print it - to edit a weekly paper, assist in getting read to issue a Daily, and performing sundry other duties too tedious to mention. I have met with much unlooked for difficulty in gathering facts connected with Colleges, Churches, Railroads, c. c., but through the untiring exertions of Mr. Tuthill I have been enabled to give a tolerably fair account of them. I wish here to make public acknowledgement of valuable aid received from Rev. G. W. Gale. The early history of the town and Knox College is from his pen. The same facts were once before published, but very few of our citizens have read them, We are also indebted to him for a copy of the census taken in 1843. I am also under obligations to Mr. W. Arnold, clerk in the C. B. Q. Railroad Freight Office for much valuable statistical information respecting that Railroad. The reader will...
