Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Hymns of the Advent Among the many natural endowments of mankind, none appear more conspicuous or delightful than the capacity for song. Vocal utterance was bestowed upon us by the Giver of every good and perfect gift, without doubt, that we might praise and adore him, and that we might make each other glad. The correctness of this view is established in our thoughts at once, as we remember how, - when the Mosaic ritual and service was ordained, - a certain portion of the children of Israel were set apart for this express purpose; and how, also, in this dispensation of the fullness of times, the great Apostle exhorts the people of God to Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. The church of the living God has ever been inspired to sing; but never before has she had such inspiration to break forth in joyful lays of praise and thanksgiving as now. For now The night is far spent; the day is at hand. They who have heeded the light which was ordained to shine in a dark place until the Day-dawn, know that the dreary night-shadows - brought upon this earth by humanity s sin, and the chaos conjured by man s selfishness - are soon to give place to the beauteous glory of a never-ending day, and the ceaseless harmonies of an immortal regeneration, quickened by God s Spirit of everlasting grace and perfect love. The morning watch is here- Blessed is he that watcheth...
