Excerpt from The Alumnae News of the North Carolina College for Women, Vol. 16: February 1927 It was reported that a very satisfactory sum had been realized from the card party held at Virginia Beach during the summer. Fees for the year were also collected. Meeting two: The first Saturday in November. Business and social. Our president, Mrs. Horsley, was hostess to us at her home. There was a good attendance. The ever present question, How to make money to complete the payment of our chapter pledge to the Building Fund, again provoked lively discussion. We finally decided to have a series of subscription bridge parties at the homes of our members, each member to play a hand or to be responsible for one. During the social hour, dainty and delicious refreshments were served by our hostess. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
