

Ziggurat (Paperback)

By Peter Balakian

The University of Chicago Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Reprint. Language: English . Brand New Book. Warhol/Electric Chair/ 63 : The red spreads like Christmas wrapping - the green, a field in a Caucasian rug. It s almost beautiful without the metal plates for the head (though the plug on the floor is visible). Before decorator colors Hockney, Calvin Klein in the summery Hamptons, before there were - switches to break the flow my mother used to say never touch a radio when you re in the bathtub, never fly a kite near transmission lines. But still, it s furniture still, it s a typical American way to go - it s Sing Sing, the silhouette of Ethel Rosenberg. In the rheostatic air, the absent man heard She Loves You , the British invasion and the flat line arrived at once. Outside Negroes were eaten by dogs. Johnson was sworn in. Cuba turned red in the green sea. In his first book of poems since his highly acclaimed June-tree , Peter Balakian continues to define himself as one of the most distinctive voices of his generation. Exploring history, self, and imagination, as well as his ongoing concerns with...
