Just hours away from being aborted A child of divorce Twice adopted Three different last names by the age of 16 Married the love of my life who 48 years later promised me, Your life will be hell! 4 times displaced from my home Emotionally abused A casualty in the war of divorce Left heavily in debt, with little resources and a bad credit rating Can anything good come from such a life! Absolutely, if God is in it. When I was 12, I met Jesus. That began a love affair that still continues to grow. Family interference started two years later with restrictions as to when and if I could go to church. During those disappointing, tough teen years, I found two Scriptures that became my solid foundation: 1 John 3 reinforced my identity and revealed my characteristics as Gods child. Sadly, so many people today live in spiritual poverty because they dont know who they are. But thats another book. Ephesians 4: 11 became my life verse. It taught me that contentment wasnt dependent on where I was or what I had. It gave me a mindset based on God. He was in control of my life. Wherever He placed me and whatever my circumstances were, I was there for a purpose a purpose that would glorify Him and benefit me. So, what then is Gods take on forgiveness The answer is found in 2 Chronicles 7: 14. When we meet His conditions, God promised to forgive our sins and heal our land. To me, land means what farmers need to produce their crops. Im not a farmer. What, then, is my land that God will...
