THE CLIMATE OF LONDON: DEDUCED FROM METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS

Cambridge University Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 376 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 1.0in. The student of clouds Luke Howard (1772-1864) published this work of statistics on weather conditions in London in two volumes, in 1818 and 1820. Howard was by profession an industrial chemist, but his great interest in meteorology led to his studies on clouds (also reissued in this series), and his devising of the system of Latin cloud names which was adopted internationally and is still...
