We presume that progress towards maturity happens by a two steps forward, one step back process. But the Biblical model doesn't quite support this view. Instead Scripture speaks of unveiled faces that are being transformed from glory to glory. It imagines us as trees planted close to a stream, whose branches never wither. And it speaks of those whose hearts are set on pilgrimage who then go from strength to strength until each appears before God in Zion. The numerous images and creative metaphors of the spiritual journey found in these concise and thought-provoking meditations are both contemporary while deeply rooted in the classics of Catholic, Orthodox and Reformation contemplative traditions. ROB DES COTES is a spiritual director, retreat leader and pastor of Imago Dei, a network of faith communities that encourages the practice of prayer and a transforming relationship with God. He is the author of four other books of meditations for spiritual...
