Excerpt from Minutes of the Fourteenth Annual Meeting of the General Congregational Association of Southern California: Held With the East Los Angeles Congregational Church, October 9th, 10th and 11th, 1900 The following have been suggested as truths needing emphasis in this, our day: Thou shalt love the Lord thy God; The golden rule; The presence of the personal God; The teachings of Christ; The Holy Spirit; Salvation after repentance; Practical Christianity; The sinfulness of sin; and The need of Christ; The atonement, God in Christ reconciling the world to Himself; The Gospel the true basis of mental ascendancy and poise to offset Christian Science Claims; The moral order of the universe; The plain truths of Christ; Repent and believe the Gospel. Does not our age call for more positive truth teaching? Fads grow best in minds not furnished with great general working principles of truth. The reports show a healthy desire for clearer convictions of sin, righteousness, salvation through Christ, and the Christian's duty to God and to man.
