

Ghost in a Red Hat: Poems (Paperback)

By Rosanna Warren

WW Norton Co, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Reprint. Language: English . Brand New Book. In her fifth collection, Rosanna Warren draws inspiration not only from her own life but also from the works of other artists, both classical and contemporary, real and imagined. Warren explores the political and the personal through myth, history, elegy, and erotic lyric. She eulogizes her mother in poems such as Mediterranean, where she writes, the mystery was / not that she walked there, ten years after her death, // but that she vanished, and let twilight take her place-. In other poems, Warren contemplates wreckage and sorrow in family life, in Hurricane Katrina, and in the Trojan War, but also moments of eerie blessing. In her most forceful collection to date, she obsessively traces themes, both ancient and modern, in a voice compelling and deeply persuasive. from Mediterranean There was something I wanted to say, at the age of twelve, some question she hadn t answered, and yesterday, so clearly seeing her pace before me it rose again to the tip of my tongue, and the mystery was not that she walked there, ten years after her death, but that she vanished,...
