Nor does the bill charge that complainants did not know of the sale and intended purchase; nor is there any denial, by affidavit or otherwise, that they did not receive the notice sent to them, nor do they set up that they were ignorant of the suit which their own company had instituted, under which the decree of sale had been obtained. The injunction was refused, and complainants excepted. R. TooMns; S. H. HALtDEMAN, for plaintiffs in error. W. H. HULL, for defendants. TRIPPE, Judge. The injunction prayed for was to restrain the defendant from further paying interest upon its indorsement of the bonds of the Western Railroad, and also from consummating the purchase which it and the Central Railroad and Banking Company had made of the Western Railroad. The chancellor, in refusing the injunction, put his decision on the ground that there was enough...
