Excerpt from The Message of His Excellency Abiram Chamberlain, the Gov r of Connecticut, to the General Assembly, 1903 I am not unmindful of the honor conferred upon me by the people of this Commonwealth, and it will be my endeavor to discharge, with fidelity, the duties of the high office to which I am called. We must not lose sight of the fact that we are serving the people, and our endeavor should be to render such service as will re ect credit upon the good old State of Connecticut we love so well and which has honored us in so signal a manner. Your duty is to enact the laws; that of the Executive, to execute them. Therefore it will not be the purpose of the Executive to recommend at length, but ratherto suggest such action on your part as he may in his judgment deem of special importance. The opportunity to introduce measures for your consideration will not be neglected, and you will have much labor to perform in determining your action upon them. In a careful analysis, personal interest, and it might be said selfish motives, may be discovered in many of the bills offered. Connecticut is a State of which we are all proud. Its foundation was laid by men whose memories we cherish. From them we have received a legacy such as no other people has inherited, and it is our duty to guard it well, that we may transmit to our children our own goodly heritage. We have great reason to be thankful for the abundant prosperity which prevails not alone within our own borders, but throughout this great country. Let us therefore rejoice and give...
