Ruskin. klt is nearly eight oclock; our usual Workers Prayer Meeting has been over about a quarter of an hour, and we can turn our thoughts to the closing meeting of our busy week. The doors of the great Hall are open, and the working people are coming in. What a delight it is to see them! Husbands and wives, parents and children! Those men used, in many cases, to spend their leisure hours, and especially their Saturday evenings, with boon companions in the tobacco and drink laden atmosphere of public-houses; now they take their pleasure with their families, and like no place so well as this, where so many of them have begun to live the only life worth having. This gathering grew out of the necessity of the case. As soon as men became saved through the P. S. A. and other agencies, I felt it incumbent upon me to provide some place of recreation to which they might come, especially on the Saturday evening, when the publicans offer their choicest attractions, and the working-classes have more leisure time as well as a larger amount of spending money. It is not enough to bring children into the world; you must rear, shield, and teach them. The new birth is...
