Birch House Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .How do you move on when It s Over? When four college roommates lose pieces of their lives, the pain isolates and the tension rises. Emotions are hard to hide and even harder to tackle. How can the girls move forward, when there is so much pain in letting go? Together, Claire, Kat, Palmer, and Hannah learn to lean on God and each other, and through it all they learn loss is a part of life. In It s Over, Laura L. Smith confirms the truth we ve been told that we are never alone in the midst of heartache and struggle. In fact, she takes us to a place where we not only get to see, but feel deeply the truth of the fact that every single one of us has a story. Everyone single one of us has experienced pain. But more importantly, that every single one of us has great hope. Smith s writing strikes a deep chord in my heart. It makes sense. It s real--and in my opinion, that transparency makes all the difference. Holly Starr, Christian recording artist. Laura L. Smith speaks for the broken. With a voice that s warm and true, Laura gives words to those rendered speechless by issues that high school and college girls should never have to deal with--but so many of them do. In writing that s raw, relevant, and real, Smith goes where few authors dare to go: straight into the heart of today s young woman. Amy Parker, bestselling author YA author, Laura l. Smith, crafts another story that will appeal to all girls, because no one is untouched by heartache in...
