Is the federal government doing the peoples business as they would have you believe Your gut says, no. But just how bad is it Mr. F. C. Hawkins, a retired senior executive of a large cabinet-level agency, tells the story of what really goes on behind the governments closed doors. Using a personal case study, the details of which will surprise and shock you, Mr. Hawkins gives a first person account of the ethics-challenged state of the civilian governments management and operations. Despite the obstacles, Mr. Hawkins succeeded in bringing ethics-based principles and change to the Department of Energy, transforming the organization he managed from an inefficient, unresponsive bureaucracy to an efficient principle-driven business.
